

Kids Ministry: Know, Feel, Do Episode 2

Every week God gives us the opportunity to create an environment in our kid's ministry where lives are changed forever! To really be intentional about creating that environment, we must ask ourselves three questions:

1. What do I want people to _____.
2. What do I want people to _____.
3. What do I want people to _____.

Answering these three questions helps us fulfill God's vision and mission for our churches. And it's always good when going through this exercise to have a clear idea of the vision and mission of your kids ministry.

What is the vision and mission of our church?

What is the vision and mission of our kid's ministry?

Facts give information. Feelings give emotion. Emotion engages and connects people to the heart of the church and its mission and vision. Simply said:

People want to f_____ what we f_____, long before they want to k_____ what we k_____.

What are two or three things you want every leader to FEEL when they serve in kids ministry?

- 2.
- 3.

What is one practical thing you can apply in your kids ministry this week to help every leader FEEL with clarity what they are there to accomplish?

What are two or three things you want every student to FEEL when they are in your kids ministry environment?

- 2.
- 3.

E_____ creates m_____ and m_____ creates r_____ .

What is one practical thing you can apply in your kids ministry this week to help every student FEEL what you want them to feel?

Discussion Questions

1. What moment in your life as a follower of Christ moved you deeply?
2. When as a leader, whether in the church or in another area of life, have you been moved deeply by seeing a life transformed? What part did you play in it?
3. Do your leaders know how you feel about this ministry? Do they know the impact it's had on you? Do they know the impact they've had on kids lives in your church?
4. As a leader, we are the CROs (Chief Reminding Officers) of our ministries. We must continually remind our leaders and our students that they're important, that they matter. What is something simple you could do this weekend to make sure your leaders and kids know how you feel about them?
